

Coordinated Building Services

Electrical & Mechanical On-site Services

The Longo LINE TO LOAD approach quickly points out our full range of Building Services available to you.

The Longo Advantage, when it comes to Building Services, is unique in coordinating services and components all within one company. Our teams of technicians can work effectively on the various systems within your building. From office wiring to motor, fan and pump replacement to the controls needed to make them work in sync, Longo provides all this from one source.

Longo's Coordinated Building Services are the ideal resource whether retro fitting, adding new construction or "greening" your facilities. Scheduling, control and billing from one source, Longo's Building Services, make jobs run smoother and more efficiently.
